When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS TO STANDARD.

(By direct cables via Lisbon)

London, 25th—The Queen will shortly leave Osborne for Balmoral, where she will remain till Parliament reopens.

The English Transatlantic Companies have resolved to carry no more emigrants to America for the present, owing to the outbreak of cholera in Europe.

Turin, 25th—The Italian Government has resolved that no foreign military officer or representatives of the foreign press shall be permitted to attend the military manœuvres in Pied mont.

Rome, 25th—King Humbert is opposed to the United Banks Societies lending any aid to meet the deficit in the Budget.

Brussels, 25th—The news from Antwerp is less alarming than yesterday. The number of cholera cases is insignificant, and it is hoped that by isolating them completely the epidemic can be cut short.

Rome, 25th—There are three candidates for the post of General of the Jesuits; one German, one English and the other French. The Vatican favours the Frenchman.

Paris, 25th—In spite of the few cases of cholera in Havre and other places, the public health in all other parts of the country is good.

In Germany there have been cases on the Eastern frontier as well as in Hamburg, but the Government tries to conceal the fact.

(Per Havas Agency.)

London, 25th—Mr. Gladstone and some other members of the Cabinet have been re-elected.

Paris, 25th—The coal miners at St. Etienne have struck for higher wages.

In consequence of the demonstration by French miners, a great number of Belgian miners have left the coal mines in the North of France.

Madrid, 25th.—Sanitary surveillance for three days has been decreed for vessels from Belgian and German ports.

Paris, 24th.—Two Generals and a Colonel have been placed on the retired list for unnecessarily exposing their troops to the great heat, thereby causing several cases of sunstroke amongst them.

Port Said, 24th.—The British steamer Clan MacGregor, which arrived here to-day bound for Calcutta, reports a tremendous sub-marine eruption in the Mediterranean.

Tangier, 24th.—The civil war in Morocco is becoming very serious, and the Sultan's troops have been ordered to sack and destroy all the Anghera villages and exterminate the rebels.

New York, 24th.—The squadron under Urdapilleta has seized La Guayra, and taken the members of the Venezuelan Congress from on board a United States ship, on which they had taken refuge. This insult to the Stars and Stripes must bring about a serious question for Venezuela.

Quarantine has been imposed at New York on vessels from Havre and Hamburgh.

Rome, 24th.—The Papal Consistory will be held at the end of November. Four Italian, three French and two other prelates will receive the red hat.

Berlin, 24th.—Travellers from France are now subjected to severe inspection, to prevent the importation of cholera.

The Sultan of Zanzibar is very ill.

GREAT NEWS FROM CHILE.

RESUMPTION OF SPECIE PAYMENTS.

Mr. Augustine Ross, who rendered such yeoman service to Chile in London during the dark days of the tyrant Balmaceda, as confidential agent for the Constitutional party, has met with a grand reception on return to his native country, for he is, we believe, a Scoto-Chilian. He has, moreover, induced the Government and all the financial notables, to discard shin-plasters and adopt a gold standard similar to that of Great Britain. By this means Chile will rapidly recover from the confusion in which Balmaceda's paper-emissions have involved her, and the example which she thus sets to the other shin-plaster countries of South America will not be lost on the Government and people of Argentina.

It appears that the existing paper-money of Chile amounts to about $70,000,000, the present rate of exchange being 19 pence to the dollar. All this money is to be called in, and silver dollars worth 24 pence will be given in exchange, or new notes convertible at sight for silver. For this purpose Chile is about to solicit in London a loan for £5,600,000, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the new coinage, viz:—

Condor = $20 or £2 stg.
Libra = $10 or £1 stg.
Dollar = 24 pence.

The gold standard is to be adopted, the Libra being in every respect equal to the English "sovereign," and the gold coinage of England and Australia admitted on an equal footing as legal tender at par. The silver dollar will be an exact counterpart of the British florin or American half-dollar, and this decimal system will greatly facilitate trade, the pound sterling being, as shewn above, equal to 10 dollars.

It is very likely that Mr. Ross, before leaving London, obtained assurances from the financial houses there that Chile would have no difficulty in raising the required sum of £5,600,000 sterling for redemption of the shin-plaster currency. Happily on his arrival at Valparaiso he found that both the Chilians and foreign residents gave ready ear to his dogma "that the shinplaster currency was as great a tyranny as that of Balmaceda." He will, meantime, be regarded as a signal benefactor to Chile by freeing her from a depreciated and fluctuating currency.

We should be glad to give a public dinner, or even erect a statue, to the man who will free Argentina from the present wretched shinplasters. Chile has shewn us the way, but we fear that the man who is to play the part of Mr. Ross in Buenos Ayres is not yet born. This Argentine metropolis is a dreadful place for noisy bouncers and pseudo-economists; until we can shut them up it will be impossible to expect that any man who understands financial matters will get a hearing.

THE MARCH OF CHOLERA.

We have news simultaneously from Hamburg and Havre of the outbreak of Cholera in those ports, with which our city is in comparatively close contact by means of lines of steamers carrying immigrants, and as precautions have already been adopted at New York and elsewhere it may be as well to take some measures likewise in Buenos Ayres. Not that there is any immediate cause for alarm, since the length of the voyage from Europe is in some manner a safeguard, and we have seen that the 6 great visitations of Cholera in the Old World passed off without coming to the River Plate. They were as follows:—

Year.	Victims.
1832.....	534,000
1849.....	1,240,000
1854.....	1,140,000
1865.....	694,000
1873.....	621,000
1884.....	154,000
Total..	4,383,000

But, although the epidemic was not imported into this country on any of the above occasions it is well to remember that Cholera has twice caused much havoc here. In 1867-68 it carried off some 22,000 persons, mostly in Buenos Ayres and Rosario, and its ravages in the Upper Provinces in 1887, especially at Tucuman and Mendoza, are fresh in the minds of our readers. Hence it is clear that Argentina enjoys no special immunity from this terrible scourge, and that it is expedient to take whatever precautionary measures experience and medical science suggest.

Dr. Davison has very properly suggested in the first place that the municipality should do its utmost to promote the use of boiled water during the summer months: he proposes an edict that the proprietors of "conventillos" or tenement houses should be compelled to deliver daily a gallon of boiled water to each of the tenants. It was shewn during the violence of the epidemic in Chile, in 1887, that the use of boiled water was the best possible guarantee, and that wherever this precaution was not observed the mortality was tremendous. Let us, therefore, hope that Dr. Davison's suggestion be adopted, and that, moreover, in every private family a similar injunction be rigidly enforced by the head of the house.

It is observed that the rate of mortality varies exceedingly. When the Cholera first appeared in Europe, in 1832, the deaths ranged from 38 to 42 in every 100 cases. Subsequently, in 1864, the rate was much lower in Southern Europe than in the North, being only 30 per cent in Spain against 65 per cent in Denmark. It was, however, more uniform in 1886, ranging from 50 to 55 per cent in all countries.

Latest advices from Hamburg indicate that the present visitation is of extraordinary malignancy, deaths averaging 68 per cent of persons attacked, but this rate will probably diminish as the disease is invariably more deadly when it first appears than afterwards. It is said that when the first visitation occurred in England, in 1832, the death-rate at first was 90 per cent, which greatly added to the terror of the time.

As regards Buenos Ayres the authorities may see their way to some other precautions besides the use of boiled water. We may here allude to a very unpleasant fact which calls for attention. Passengers who arrive by the morning trains at the Central Station perceive a disgusting smell which pervades the precincts, but whether it arises from any unsanitary condition of the closets or merely from the Madero Docks we cannot say. A poisonous atmosphere, at any rate, is nearly as bad as the use of infected water, especially when there is danger of an epidemic, and we trust that the Municipality will do its utmost either to remove a nuisance of this kind or to cause a liberal use of coal tar or other disinfectant.

The comparative immunity of England from Cholera during the last 27 years is in great measure due to sanitary precautions. On the other hand the recent terrible visitations at Marseilles and Toulon were apparently the result of the filthy condition of the docks in those places. Whoever has had to embark or disembark at Marseilles will never forget the smell of that port by night and by day.

We should fail in our duty to the public if we did not impress on the authorities of Buenos Ayres the adage of Lord Beaconsfield: "Sanitas, sanitatum, et omnia sanitas."

THE CHILIAN MAILS.

Valparaiso, August 10th

Mr. Augustin Ross, having arrived from England, has had conferences with the Government about reform of the currency. The special Committee of which Mr. Agustin Ross is the moving spirit, have decided in favour of a gold standard. It is proposed to have a gold dollar of 24 pence, or one tenth of a pound sterling, a libra equal in every respect to the sovereign to be worth ten dollars, and a Condor to be worth twenty dollars. The silver coinage to be nine-tenths fine. It is proposed to sell the metallic reserve and receive in payment Fiscal Notes which will be incinerated. The commission also propose to raise a loan of 28,000,000 dollars for the complete redemption of all the Paper Money. Provision is also made for the issue of convertible bank notes to take the place of the Fiscal notes. The resumtion of specie payments is thus a matter of the near future.

The banquet to Mr. Ross took place, according to announcement, on Thursday evening, in the Philarmonic Hall, and was a splendid affair. It would have been put off had it been possible to do so, out of respect for the memory of the late Rev. Father Donoso, but the arrangements had reached such a stage that it was found impossible to do so. A large company sat down to table, and numerous letters of adhesion were read from gentlemen who were unable to attend owing to illness from the prevailing epidemic. All nationalities were represented, and Mr. Kenneth Mathieson, speaking for the British community, scored a success. A number of speeches, all bearing testimony to the ability, energy, abnegation and patriotism of Mr. Ross were delivered and he in replying to the toast of his health, said: "After the triumph all ought to devote their efforts to save the Nation from another Dictatorship no less prejudical than that of Balmaceda—the regimen of the Paper Money."

The Rev. Salvador Donoso, Vicar General of Valparaiso, died of Influenza on Tuesday.

He was one of the victims of the Dictator, and persecution, incarceration and exile had weakened a once robust constitution, and his health was already in a delicate condition when he was stricken with the disease which has carried him off. Father Donoso was one of the 'Lights' of the Chilian church, and as a sacred orator he had few equals. In his private life the only bounds to his charity were the means at his command, and his friendships were not confined to race or creed. Many Englishmen, some of them no longer resident in Chile, had the honour and the pleasure of being included in his circle of friends, and nowhere will his death be mourned with greater sincerity than among them. Of him, it may be truly said that his good works will live after him.

Valparaiso has long enjoyed the unenviable notoriety of being the home 'par excellence' of the adulterator of food and drink. His career, however, is in a fair way of being cut short. Mayor Fisher has just laid before the Municipality a project for the establishment of a Municipal Laboratory which, if carried into effect, will entitle the proposer of it to be considered one of Valparaiso's greatest benefactors. Mayor Fisher is the son of an Englishman, and naturally we feel proud that the great honour we have just mentioned should fall to the lot of the son of a Briton.

The ravages committed by Influenza in July, may be gathered from the following statistics: Out of a total of 885 deaths registered 253 are returned as from influenza, and 259 from pulmonary complaints, the majority of the latter being doubtless the result of the former. It is therefore no exaggeration to say that one half of the deaths in July were due to influenza.

Not long ago a well-known bandit, named Manuel Lagos, escaped from gaol at Traiguen and, of course, returned to his old trade. A fey days since he undertook to waylay and rob a señor Baldevenito, in Ultra Cautin, on the banks of the river Muco,, but he had counted witout his host. The intended victim proved to be much the better man of the two, for he wounded his assailant and put him "hors de combat, and then bound him and delivered him to the police autorities at Imperial.

On the 23rd ult., Mr. John Cook, an English colonist, who owns a farm about six miles from Victoria on the Traiguen river, was returning on horseback from Victoria. When about six miles from the town he overtook two natives on foot. As he was passing them one seized hold of his horse's bridle and fired at Cook with a revolver. The bullet entered his body in a slanting direction. Quick as thought Cook drew his revolver and fired at his assailant, the bullet passing right through his head. Death of course was instantaneous. The other ruffian then drew a knife to attack Cook, but the latter galloped off. Faint from the bullet wound and loss of blood, Cook could only ride as far as the house adjoining the railway bridge over the Quino river. He is now recovering from his injuries. Both ruffians appear to be well-known by workmen on the railway, but has usual no one will give evidence.

A report is current that the position of Director-General of the State Railways has ben offered to Mr. Enrique Budge, who has signified his willingness to accept on certain condition, which involve the removal of some employees and the appointment of certain persons to the vacancies. Mr. Budge is a railway engineer of considerable experience, snd the general oppinion appears to be that as Director-General he would be the right man in the right place.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

ODDS AND ENDS.

July, 29th.

In glorious July weather the Goodwood cup day has gone bye for 1892, and we are to suppose that the London season is over. The Royal Opera closed its extra season last night; but until parliament meets and the vote of want of confidence is passed, the great world will hang about the London squares and parks, still fresh and unusually radiant with summer flowers. As for Goodwood, and above all on the cup day, which is the ladies' day, no one cares much about the horses. In fact there were only three of them in the race. Mr. Baird's Martagon is understood to have beaten the Duke of Westminster's Blue-Green by a neck, and Colorado was third. There is a little colour in that; but the grand attractions were the dresses. The lady-journalists who, like the Scottish marksmen at Bisley, are sweeping the board, and driving their male rivals into the workhouse, are unapproachable of course on this subject, and one can only weep at one's own ignorance and littleness when we read that 'yellow is less prominent in gowns than in trimmings—that blue was seen in a jarring infinity of warring tones—that this mild and gentle colour is capable of endless discord—that seldom two blues approach each other in a crowd, with any degree of harmony—that they generally swear at each other'.

Let us hope that this last named practice will, for our time at least, be confined to the dresses.

* * *

I spoke of Bisley. This has been a great year for auld Scotland. In addition to the Elcho shield she has in the person of Major Pollock won two stages of the Queen's Prize besides winning the International Trophy, and dotting the whole of the lists with the names of Scottish regiments and Scottish counties. The Scots are the best marksmen. Indeed they play to win in whatever they do, and succeed. The Irishman is too bashful and the Englishman too conceited. Pollock represents the Union Bank of Scotland at Barrhead a small town in the west of Scotland about ten miles from Glasgow. He is about forty years of age and joined the B company of the 3rd. Renfrew (now 3rd. V. B. Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders) of which his father was captain in 1870. One wonders how this old boy, a bank manager, hailing from the smoke of Glasgow or very near, can win prizes for rifle shooting from his own sturdy young countrymen reared in their native glens. Major Pollock has himself given one reason in his own broad dialect. He lives close to a range and just keeps pegging at it. In this overpopulous and flat and highly cultivated half of the kingdom, ranges are a difficulty except to enthusiasts who think nothing of wheeling themselves backwards and forwards to a range 20 or 30 miles distant The Englishmen seem to have run Pollock very hard. The final struggle is thus described:—

"Another man shooting at the same target began, however, to show up. This was Private Comber, 2nd V. B. West Surrey, who had come up with 198, and added only 35 at the first range, making him 233. Shooting better at 900 yards, he put on 42 more and wound up with 275. Stocks finished almost immediately with the same total, obtained by a score of 37. But Pollock had been equal to the occassion. He was one of the relatively few competitors making use of the back position, and fired with commendable rapidity, when compared to some of his fellows. His sixth shot, following on an inner, an outer, a bull, and a brace of inners, was a ricochet. But this drop of five points did not affect him. Adding three bulls he tied on his ninth shot with Stocks and Comber, and had only to hit the target to beat them. Perhaps he was a little nervous, for though he managed to accomplish this the result was only an outer. This, as it turned out, gave him the Gold Medal with a range total of 36 and an aggregate of 277.

The weather at Bisley was abominable until the last two days of the meeting. The "take" is much less than it was at Wimbledon. Bisley is too far for the mob of sight-seers. It is over an hour's drive by rail from London.

***

The forty sixth report of the Commissioners in Lunacy has just been issued and is not pleasant reading. There is an increase of insanity of 1 in a 1000 since 1883. It is calculated that amongst paupers 10 per cent are insane. That is, however, only a specimen of a dry statistic. The real meaning is that people become paupers on account of their insanity.

You can pick from the Dwarf some bits about the Conntess of Orkney, Lady Clancarty, Lady Richard Mansel, Lady Euston (who in time will be the Duchess of Grafton) and other stage girls who have done so well in life that it will soon be a question with young ladies from America as well as our own pining and neglected middle-class beauties, whether the most direct way to a coronet or social advancement, or marriage itself is not through the stage doors of our minor theatres. I could give you instances of the kind that would astound you as they astounded me, but they cannot be distinctly alluded to, as the young ladies concerned managed to get off with sonnets written in their honour by spoony youngsters in society papers, whilst their matrimonial success escapes the public eye. Some charming girl one meets under very different circumstances in one week you see the next week riding in the Row with her groom behind her and are told "that is Mrs So and So and of such and such hall or castle, a county personage, but not sufficiently grand and ennobled or of enough theatrical fame to have her marriage gossiped about in the papers. Middle-class girls are beginning to know this too well and laugh at work or a hum-drum existence if they have a bit of a voice for singing or a figure and face that they think will make up well on the stage. Mere prettiness is useless. Plenty of length and bone and large features and swimming eyes are what pay in the "Variety" line. And so, you see in the advertisement columns of the London papers, "The Palace Theatre (limited.)" Capital £200,000. Managing director Sir Augustus Harris. Variety entertainments etc. Of such is to be the transfiguration of the Royal English Opera, Cambridge circus, that dear Mr. D'Oyley Carte in his own interest, as well as in the interests of Sir Arthur Sullivan, and of British music and British art, built and decorated so superbly scarcely twelve months ago. It failed. "Ivenhoe" failed. It all failed and why? Smoking has become such a necessary of life that mere smoking rooms in theatres, good as they were at the English Opera, are not enough. People want to smoke while they hear and see—above all see. "It's not your smoking sir," says an old lady, "it's your nasty ugly low tastes." No, madam, no. We are not all of us vicious young men. Many of us can sit out a whole cyclus of Wagnerian music dramas with anyone; but we do not like, as a rule, to be jammed together for four or five hours, or run out and have to rush in when the prompter's bell rings, with a half-lit pipe in our pocket. On that account Madam and other accounts not necessary to state in detail we believe that the Palace Theatre Company (limited) will be a success, and that Sir Augustus knows what he is about, and that one act operas, "ballets d'action," unlimited smokes, easier access to all parts of the theatre, and behind the scenes will pay; and before the end of the century such things will be the rule in theatres in general, and in getting rid of low dresses, bouquets, button holes and social inanities, we shall have better music and better dramas, and if marriages are still in vogue we shall have more of them. A serious-minded gentleman I could name, who was once the intimate friend both of Cardinal Newman and Cardinal Manning, and who has recently been terribly bitten with a love of music and the Wagnerian drama, recently asked me: why we could not, as Bayreuth and Ammergan, have the sacred events of the greatest of historic dramas solemnly and superbly presented on the stage? The world is beginning to ask the same question. If the answer in a near future is favourable, then adieu! to posies to cover nakedness, white chokers to stiffen imbecility and to outward parade of refinement that denotes but one virtue—cleanliness; and is otherwise the antithesis of mental purity and the appreciation of the highest.

All the papers comment on the recent financial statements and bill of the President of the Republic. The Telegrafo Maritimo dubs the loan as a "blague fin de siècle." It is generally believed that if the Government fail to carry out the business, they will find themselves in "serios apuros."

Owing to bad weather off the Banco Santa Lucia, on the 22nd, the steamer Luis Puig had her cargo damaged. The cargo of the steamer Santa Ana was damaged in the same way on that day.

LATEST FROM RIO.

Rio, Aug. 16.

On Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, a large party of insubordinate soldiers of the 2nd artillery, about 50 in number, appeared in the Praia Formosa and Sacco de Alferes district of this city and began an indiscriminate attack on the people, both in the street and in their houses. The men were in uniform and were armed with sword ba onets, knives, pistols, etc. They not only attacked the police and people encountered on the street, but they also attacked passing tram-cars, cutting and beating the passengers and robbing them of their money and valuables. There were only four policemen in the district, one of whom was killed and the other three were wounded, one of them gravely. A large number of civilians were wounded more or less severely, but the number is not known as they disappeared from the scene as quickly as possible. As soon as news of the disorder reached the central police station, a force of police was sent to the place, but the disorderly soldiers had already disappeared. The cause of the raid is not known, nor is it explained why the police subdelegado did not call for help when the disorders first began.

A telegram from Rio Grande do Norte on the 11th says that the legislature of that state has imposed a duty of 4½ on imports for consumption from other states. The tax is inconstitutional, but that apparently makes very little difference. The conflicting ideas about taxation and the powers of states and municipalities in regard to the same, promise to lead us into a labyrinth of confusion before long.

The comparative receipts at the Rio custom-house for the first six months of this year and of 1891 were as follows:—

	1892	1891
Importation.....	44,064,977	32.436,979
Exportation.....	2,887,715	3,559,246
Total receipts....	44,061,951	36,239,078
Internal revenue.	8,085,308	11,304,371

This year the receipts were augmented by a surtax and by the depreciation in the currency.

A trial of new electric cars, overhead wire system, on the Praia Flamengo section of the Botanical Garden tramway line, took place on the 12th and resulted successfully. A high rate of speed was attained and the car obeyed the lever perfectly.

On the 12th inst. Carlos Froment presented to President Floriano Peixoto a proposal to supply this city with beef, binding himself to sell it to butchers at 560 reis per kilo and to establish 60 butcher shops for selling it to the public at 660 reis

The qnickest despatch on record in this port, as we are informed, recently occurred with the British ship Wilhelm Tell, J. S. Crane master, consigned to Messrs. Lage Brothers with a cargo of 4,700 tons of coal. This cargo was discharged and the ship was ballasted with 1,500 tons of stone in 30 working days. This shows what can be done when all the parties concerned and the conditions are favorable.

In Pernambuco on the 9th inst. a meeting, attended by 3,000 persons, was held at the market to protest against the new municipal taxes. A deputation from this meeting called on the governor who received is favorably and made a speech from the window of his house to the crowd assembled in the street, asking the people to respect the authorities and refrain from disorderly demonstrations and promising to defend their rights.

Later in the day the prefect of the city went to the market with some of his friends to inquire into the matter and after some parleying with malcontents, was hissed and stoned. He and several of his friends were wounded. Several houses were also stoned.

Friends of the prefect then called on the governor and on the questor of the police and asked them to quell the riotous demonstrations. Not satisfied with the action of those two authorities, they then called on Gen. Roberto Ferreira, commander of the military district, and asked him to depose the Governor.

In the meantime the general had sent a detachment of infantry to the scene of conflict. Fighting ensued and the troops fired with blank cartridges, it is said, for the purpose of intimidating the mob, which was armed with clubs, hatchets and stones. An aide-camp of the general was wounded, according to one account, by a stone thrown by one of the rioters, and according to another by a fall from his horse.

The mob demanded the dissolution of the municipal council.

During the disturbances the business houses in the vicinity closed their doors.

On the 10th the Governor ordered the suspension of the collection of the objectionable taxes, but the municipal Government refused to respect the order and instructed its agents to continue to collect the taxes. The Governor, it is said, sent a police force to the market to protect the persons who refused to pay. Deputy Jose Mariano received a telegram from Pernambuco on the 10th saying that the deposition of the Governor is certain. On the 11th General Roberto Ferreira telegraphed to Vice-President Floriano Peixoto, stating that the federal troops maintain strict neutrality and will only interfere at the request of the legal authorities. This telegram appears to be in answer to one which is said to have been sent him by General Floriano, instructing him not to depose the Governor.—Rio News.

ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

Dr. E. Graham Pilgrim's lecture to this society on the tendency of Modern Civilisation to evolve the Nervous Temperament, with a review of its advantages, its disadvantages, its future and its management, came off on Wednesday evening. The audience, which numbered about 100 persons, listened to the lecture with the greatest attention throughout. He illustrated the subject by citations from history, by physiological experiment on two gentlemen of the audience, and by diagrams.

It was shown that nervous evolution was being accelerated by the tendency of modern life to put at a discount the physical powers of mankind and to place an immense premium on the functions of the brain—that, in the struggle for life, those with predominant nervous power must infallibly supplant all others.

The general mode of action of nerve centres and their inter-relation with each other were then indicated, and the speaker took especial trouble to explain the working of 'Centres of Control' both in physical and in psychical processes, and demonstrated their supreme physiological importance. He showed how in the progressive evolution of these 'centres of control' lies the foundation of all modern optimism. On scientific grounds, then, he took a most hopeful view of the future of Humanity, and supported those hopes by many collateral considerations. He touched upon a kind of training and education best fitted for the nervous temperament of modern times, and specially emphasized the necessity of teaching something of political and social economy in schools. The President and several members of the audience expressed their appreciation of the lecture, and the interest with which they had followed the argument with the trains of thought it had suggested.

Dr. Hugo Marcus could not agree that evolution developed the highest nerve centres; but took the pessimistic view that our lower and grosser centres seemed to become stronger every day. Mr. Hutton complimented the lecturer on his clearness of exposition, but said that the physiology of nerve cells seemed inadequate to explain human spontaneity and free will—that they were the mechanism whereby the 'ego' manifested its activity but were not the 'ego' itself. Mr. Ingals drew attention to the great influence which climate exercised on nervous evolution, and as regards the increasing predominance of mind over muscle he said that the great armaments of modern Europe seemed to show that human physique was still quite as important as human intelligence. Dr. Pilgrim in thanking his audience for the cordial attention with which he had been welcomed, replied to Dr. Hugo Marcus that the evolution of our higher centres must in the future predominate over that of the lower centres for the simple reason that in the struggle for life those whose lower centres predominate will be ousted by those whose superiority lies in their higher centres. With Mr. Hutton he agreed that Free Will, if it existed, could not be explained by physiology, but that the discussion of that matter was foreign to the purpose of thelecture. To Mr. Ingals he remarked that modern warfare, though apparently a muscular struggle, was really a matter of national brain power, national character and national wealth.

To which we may add the dictum of Lord Wolseley that the battles of the future will be won by the men of greatest nerve.

It was nearly eleven o'clock when the meeting concluded with a hearty vote of thanks to the talented lecturer, echoing the wish of Mr. Hutton for his speedy reappearance in a similar capacity.

FUNERAL REFORM.

Buenos Ayres, 25 August 1892.

Mr. Editor,

In his letter Mr. Tucker refers to a circular on this subject having been sent round. By whom was it signed, or who was responsible for it? Less ostentation; economy consistent with decency; abolition of unnecessary attendance in unhealthy surroundings, without neglect. These recommendations were strenuously advocated by the London press years ago, and have been generally accepted by Englishmen "in theory." The question is, how to induce their "practice." Do the wealthy set the example? In others it would be attributed to poverty; not choice, or principle; a criticism nobody courts. In this country, where every one wishes to give directions, and nobody wishes to be guided, the English-speaking community have shewn that on occasions they can pull well together. Can they unite on the question of Funeral Reform? As our burials are almost always attended by some kind of religious ceremony, cannot the executive councils of our religious communities lay their heads together, and agree as to the practical shape they would recommend the proposed reform should take?

Yours truly.
Experiencia docet.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather, physical and political, was slightly clouded yesterday. Our bumptious neighbour Chile is much disgusted at all the splendid warships and Manlicher rifles this country is buying. Dame Rumour was in full war paint about all that may happen between this and the 12th of October, whether that date turn up next week or not. In fact there was a decidedly middle-of-next-week feeling in all circles yesterday, and many anxious people declared that they would submit to be kicked into that date in order to be out of suspense. The Gold Bird rose.

We are on the stool of repentance for not thanking Messrs. Mackern and Shine for the English papers they sent us when the last mail arrived. We now beg to do so, with a grateful smile.

The National Senators threw public business to the dogs yesterday and remained "en sus casas."

A Banda Oriental estanciero has discovered an infallible way of telling when a horse has passed nine years of age. When the animal is more than 9 years old he gets a wrinkle on the lower eyelid for every year, and has three when 12 years old.

The Boca police are trying to find out who the fellows are that stole 105 coils of wire from the barque Villa Colon moored in front of Messrs. J. Drysdale and Co.'s "corralon" in the Boca. It appears the crew of the barque were awakened by the noise of people walking on deck. They rushed up, but were driven back by a party of men armed with revolvers. The wire belonged to Messrs. Drysdale and had only that day been transhipped from the German steamer Kronprinz.

The Neiderlein expedition has arrived safely at Corrientes. They go first up the Pilcomayo.

Mr. Hansen, Chief Clerk in the Interior department, has been named Argentine Consul in Liverpool. Tip-top man for the post.

The latest rumour in town last night was that Congress will pass an Act abolishing the month of September for this year only; and it is confidently expected that this will settle the political crisis effectually.

There was more water boiled in town yesterday than usual. Of course the news from the two H's — Havre and Hamburg—was the cause. The Health Board is on the 'key veeve.' We heard a philanthropic undertaker say yesterday that he hopes there will be no epidemic in the list of imports this year. So say we all of us.

Mail closes for Bolivia to-day at 10 a. m. and for Chile at 3 p. m.

We desire to call attention to the annual meeting of subscribers and friends of the Sailors' Home which takes place to-day in the school-room of the Anglican Church at, 3 p.m.

The Foreign Residents' Club holds its yearly meeting to night. It is flourishing like a green bay tree.

We regret much to say that General Vedia was in a very dangerous condition yesterday: almost no hope of his recovery.

Mike Bollini is in lasting trouble for sticking to a lot of lasts belonging to the National Boot Factory

Dr. Davison proposes that all the water used for drinking in the "conventillos" of the city be boiled during the summer months, This is a capital idea: but the difficulty will be in putting it into practice. It will convulse the kettle market and cause a sky-rocket boom in the price of the useful domestic article, by which ironmongers will make a pot of money.

The Voz de la Iglesia says that at least two of the names mentioned yesterday as members of the new National Cabinet will not be in it; and no matter who is in it, it will not last long. This is by no means unlikely.

A man boasting of his pedegree said their names were contained on five large skins of parchment. "Yes," said one present, "and about the middle of it was a note in the margin "About this time the world was created."

The "ocean greyhound" record has been smashed again. At 1.02 a.m. on Wednesday, the 27th of July, the Inman s.s. City of Paris arrived at Sandy Hook, having made the run from Queenstown in 5 days 15 hours 58 minutes. This is 33 minutes better than the previous fastest passage, which was made by the White Star s.s. Teutonic during August last. The course run by the City of Paris was 7 miles longer than the Teutonic's, and she was slowed down for four and a half hours on account of a thick fog. On four days more than 500 nautical miles were covered, and on two consecutive days the unprecedented record of 519 and 520 miles respectively was made, a speed of 21.66 knots per hour being maintained for upwards of 24 hours, the best previous day's run being one of 517 knots by the Teutonic.

A dinner was given by his friends to the President-elect at George Mercer's on Wednesday night; covers laid for 190. Dr. Lastra made the first speech, congratulating Dr. Saenz-Peña, who replied that he felt confident of the support of the talent and commerce of Argentina. General Mitre made a short speech. Furlotti's band played some airs from Cavalleria Rusticana.

Lacroze's steam tramway is now doing a great business. There are trains hourly from 5.30 to 10.30 a.m. and in the afternoon till 7.30. Several families are looking for houses at Villa Devoto in anticipation of summer. Two new Quintas have been built near the station.

The weather telegram from London yesterday came in ten minutes and reported the weather in the world's metropolis as dull.

How time flies. A year has passed since the Chilian patriots polished off the late Dictator's troops at Placilla, and the anniversary will be celebrated with great rejoicing in Santiago next Sunday. Mass will be celebrated on the field where the battle took place.

"What did you pay at the shop for that hat?" "Don't know; the shopkeeper wasn't there."

The Town Councillors indulged first in a secret sitting on Wednesday. Then the curtain rose on the Lord Mayor standing fire on the eternal free "palcos" in the theatres question. Alderman Dr. O'Farrell sailed in to his lordship's assistance by moving that the "delicate' question be postponed. This pleased all the City Papas and was agreed to "right away." Then Alderman Montes de Oca announced that there were no fewer than 63 "asuntos" in a "morose" condition and embracing almost everything under the sun, from "gastos" to grave-yards. The Wise Men of the City resolved to work off this mountain of arrears by sitting permanently till they get through it.

Some enterprising person is going round scooping in the shinplasters from those who took tickets for the recent supremely brilliant promenade conc

ARTHUR GEO. PRUDEN, Manager

ON 'CHANGE.

Thursday, Aug. 25th 1892.

In the midst of the uncertainties of the political situation, with a President willing to resign and a President-elect unwilling to take over his duties before the date fixed by the Constitution, the gold market hangs fire and operators are puzzled what to think and what to do. The speculation has merged into a state of expectancy, dealers are passive, and business lingers. It may be argued on very plausible grounds that the present awkward situation cannot last many days longer and there is well-grounded apprehension that something disagreeable will ensue. It would be better for all if the President-elect were to bow to the necessities of the situation and accept the thorny post so prematurely thrust upon him; a very serious responsibility rests on the shoulders of those who have produced the present emergency.

The gold business this morning was of a meagre description; both sellers and buyers backed out, waiting for eventualities to turn up. About six thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $53.10, rose to $53.30, and closed at $53.20, say 226.88⅔ premium. Two hundred sovereigns only were sold at $16.50 and $16.55, say 228.36⅔ premium. The market closed very hard at last rates; a few minutes after one o'clock buyers rushed in at $53.30 to the ounce. The great outside market of big and small dabblers is out of the speculation for the moment, as nobody can foresee the outcome of the political crisis, the pros and cons being equally poised; the majority prefer to look on, ready to catch the turn of the tide at the climax of the situation. Should the President-elect take over the reins of power immediately there is a general conviction that the gold market would fall headlong.

Patriotic bonds fell to 71.60 for cash but closed at 71.70; a few thousand were sold for the end of September at 72.10. Internal Bonds changed hands at 67.70 and 67.60; very dull market. Over ten thousand Catalinas shares were sold at rising prices, closing at 11.40 for cash, 11.30 for to-morrow, and 11.60 for end of September. Obligaciones were both active and firm at 1.50. Municipal Consols opened at 59.70 and closed in advance at 60. Spanish Bank shares continued steady at 106 and those of the Banco Comercio were quoted at 90. La Plata Cedulas were frisky all morning and fair amounts changed hands, but prices were weak in view of the heavy supply of the stock.

Exchange continued very dull; both takers and drawers are out of the field. Discounts were easy.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Messrs. Mackinlay Hms., the well-known land-brokers, have sold to Mr. George Bell 4342 hectares of land in the Partido Tandil for 120,000$m/n.

The following passengers are expected here by the R. M. S. Clyde:—

Sr. Rigley, E. B. Whish, H. H Woodgate, R. Barclay, David Mac Clennan, W. Rigby, W. R. Shand, Rolland, J. Hughes, G. Hughes, C. J. Hughes, W. H. Tay, A. F. Vans Agnew, H. F. Gunning, Sr. Harding, J. Murray.

Freights, both for steamers and sailing vessels, are at present at a very low ebb. Maize freights are current at 12/; some operations are reported at 10/. There is excessive tonnage in port. Grain has been shipped as low as 12f francs. There is little or no demand for sailing vessels.

A Buenos Ayres firm bought yesterday in Rosario 15,000 bags of wheat at reserved price.

Judge Garay has approved the compromise between Mr. Basail and Mrs Langworthy; the latter receives back the La Florencia Colony and pays Mr. Basail $6,000 for back interest and improvements.

Mr. A Posse has applied to the Government for right to catch sea lions at States Island between Capes San Bartolome and San Juan.

A Bahia Blanca subscriber sends us the following interesting notes:—

"The new 'mercado' in Bahia Blanca is a large, strongly built building of first-class brick, in lime, with roof of zinc and brick underneath and corridor all round. It contains in all 46 stalls or shops, ten of which are in the centre for the sale of meat, with marble slab counters. The 'kiosko,' with tank for forty pipes of water, rises above these stalls, and is filled from a good well, pumped by horse-power. There are two good 'algibes' and four 'resumideros' to carry off all dirty water. It is well provided with hoses in case of fire, having nine different taps which also are used for cleaning out the stalls.

"Camps about here are looking well and with every prospect of a good year for the estancieros and farmers."

Messrs. Carlos Lix-Klett, Francisco de Souza Martinez, and Gregorio Gallegos left to-day for La Plata to hand to Governor Costa the appeal of merchants, consignees, and estancieros that all the produce business of the province be concentrated in the Central Produce Market. The appeal is signed by the following gentlemen:—

Exporters, merchants and manufacturers:—

The above signatures give an idea of the importance and proportion of the movement in favor of the centralization of the produce business. Merchants and estancieros have joined the crusade of the consignees. The initiative sprang from a meeting of members of the commercial community in the saloons of the Camara de Comercio on 'Change, when the following committee were appointed:—

Diego T. Ramsay, Hasslip, Ernesto Bunge and A. Baudorino to take the matter over with the managers of railways.

Emilio Sermand, Manuel Chillado, and Leopoldo Bohnen to collect signatures.

Carlos Lix Klett, Francisco de Souza Martinez, and Gregorio Gallegos to present the appeal to Governor Costa. The Governor of the province supports the movement.

Cheques of the Provincial Bank were weaker to-day at 36½ to 37% discount. Those of the National Bank closed at 21½% discount. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank closed at 20.40 to 20.30 % of their face value.

This being a feast-day in the Mount the correspondent of the Buenos Aires Bolsa in that city did not send up any message. The correspondent in question might wire up the arrivals of ocean steamers at least. The Unberto 1o. arrived at the Mount last night with a large crowd of passengers for these shores.

According to telegrams from Antwerp the sales of wool are well attended and there is fair demand for the article at unchanged prices.

Telegrams from London state the Argentine Stocks are weak and ant nounce much interest in the latest phase of the Argentine political crisis.

The Provincial Government of B Ayres is at last about to rent all lands in the 5th section. These lands stretch between the Colorado and the Rio Negro, the Atlantic Ocean and the 5th Meridian and cover an area of 3 or 4 hundred square leagues, but as much of this area was bought in the year 1879 and 1880 of the National Government at the rate of $1,000 per league under the then loan law, we believe that only 150 leagues at present belong to the Provincial Governmeut, and this is the land which will now be offered on lease to parties wishing to rent it. All these lands have of late years been occupied by squatters who have one or more flocks of sheep, and as they paid no rent and the pasturages are adapted to sheepfarming, they have all done remarkably well. The Government will probably call for tenders or put the leases up at auction, but it is to be supposed that the present occupiers will always get a preference. The reason why the Government has neglected to sell or rent these lands for so many years is that they were first mortgaged to the Mortgage bank and subsequently hypothecated as colateral security to the English bondholders for a La Plata loan; the rents, therefore, which the Government will receive from the farmers will go to the English bondholders and will materially help to pay the coupons. The renting of this large tract of camp will lead to a new hegira in the south, as many of the hard pioneer sheepfarmers down there will cross the 5th Meridian and settle with their flocks on that wide and unexplored section which stretches up to the Neuquen and Limay; this will always be a gain to the Government and to the country, as it will push the sheepfarmers out on to the lands which stretch from Choel-Choel to the Colorado; whilst the camps in the 5th section will pass into the hands of people who are better able to stock them.

Messrs Collet and Llambi, the well-known auctioneers, have moved into their new and magnificent mart, Calle San Martin 175, with a large "martillo" on Calle Cangallo. The mart is one of the most spacious in B. Ayres.

We understand that Mr. Rooke, of the firm of Parry and Company, has purchased the grocery business which Mr. Alexander Maclean has for so many years so successfully conducted in Calle Cangallo, opposite the Bodega.

The Saenz Peña banquet was the talk of the Bolsa; the speeches were not considered up to the mark Had Mr. Gladstone or John Bright sat at the table, far different would have been the discourses. Bolsa men, as a rule, are very keen critics, their judgment very exact and very severe. Mitre's speech was considered the best; but people ask why General Roca was not there; why foreign merchants were not there, the fault, we suppose, rested with the committee.

It turns out now that we have got more wool in the country than we counted on, and there are 10,000 bales to be shipped in 30 days before the new wool comes in, which the 'barraqueros' think will be a difficult job to effect. There have been no wool contracts for the clip as yet concluded, and if wool buyers had more confidence in the fall in gold at the end of the year, they might do a very good business by selling gold at the present high rate and securing their paper for wool purchases: but the severity of the late crisis has knocked every atom of energy and enterprise out of the market; most of the wool buyers are foreigners, who see with dim glasses the political situation. Many of the Consignees of produce, who strut on the floors of the Central Produce Market and the deposits in the Constitucion, are bombastic Radicals who have erected on a pile of maize bags a statue to their political idol, and each morning as they attend to sell their sheepskins and mares' grease inwardly kneels on the greasy steps of their altar and bow to a political idolatry which, mingled with the produce influences of their calling, has subjugated their minds, enslaved their understanding and stripped them of all faith in the Saenz Peña future of their country.

The best news in the market to-day was from London. Telegrams were received this morning stating that Dr. Plaza accepts the post of Minister of Hacienda and that a message to that effect has been sent to the Government. The whole Bolsa welcomes this news, as Dr. Plaza with his great London connection is an invaluable Minister for the new Government. In fact, as we mentioned this morning, the Saenz Peña Government with Dr. Plaza Minister of Hacienda enters office with the Bank of England at its back, as Dr. Plaza during his long residence in London and in the most ticklish times, became the bosom friend of Mr. Lidderdale, Lord Rothschild, Mr. Burns of Morgan & Co. Mr. Drabble, Mr. Hombro and Mr. Pierrepont Morgan, whose private fortune alone amounts to twelve millions sterling. Any measure Dr. Plaza introduces to arrange the national finances will assuredly meet the full support of the London market; and we note fresh confidence in the market which is beginning to show itself. To day the gold ring was almost deserted and the whole crowd seemed to run into Catalinas. Some very good news must be current about this unfortunate stock, as people who never touched the shares are now buying. Cedulas came down by the run owing to the whisper that the appeal in the supreme Court is decided against the bank and debtors can pay off everything they owe the bank in Bonos.

Mr. John Moore, estanciero of Lobos, was welcomed. He says the camps are in good condition, and that many estancieros are thinking this summer of taking a run down to the far south and having a look at the camps down there. It is about time: half a league of land in Lobos, that supports 10,000 sheep, is worth 120,000 $, whilst two leagues of land south of the Colorado, that will support the same number of sheep, can be had for 20,000 dollars!!, such a monstrous difference is now attracting the attention of the farmers.

Mr. Hope, of Rosario, was welcomed on 'Change. The prospects of the new wheat crop are excellent, and the fact that the young wheat is backward is rather favorable than otherwise to the crop. Money in Rosario is much dearer than in Buenos Ayres, and the banks charge from 10 to 12 per cent. Mr. Burns, the Manager of the London and River Plate Bank in Rosario, is a great favorite, and the bank up there is doing a splendid business.

Telegrams received to-day from Southampton announce the arrival this morning of Mr. Anderson, of the London and River Plate Bank, which will be welcome news to his large circle of friends who were most nervous about his steamer and the Rosales storm.

English beef for ever! Nothing like a Durham properly butchered. Burgos's window, the most fashionable shop in town, has now on show a whole short horn ox hanging up as a sample of what can be supplied to restaurants, hotels or private families. We hear that in three or four days there will be a supply of English cut joints arranged in baskets in the Paris style, affording ladies facilities for buying the very best meat, and giving an order there without going to the trouble of going to the butchers' stalls in the markets. This will be, indeed, a grand departure for the families in town, and we owe it all to the unconquered energy of our friend Mr. Casey.

The gold market ruled more active at the second ring and the premium advanced very rapidly. Eight thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at $53.40, fell to $53.30, and rose to $53.60, closing price, say 229.33% premium. Nothing was done in sovereigns. Patriotic Bonds were a shade firmer at 71.90, but very little business was done. Internal Bonds were at a stand still at 67.80 for the end of the month. Over seven thousand Catalinas shares were sold at weakening prices, 11.10 for to-morrow, 11.40 for end of September. Banco Constructor shares were sold at 5½ and 4 80: the Obligaciones of the Bank were done at 1.40. Municipal Consols were active at 59.60 to 59.90. La Plata Cedulas tottered.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the second ring to-day:—

THE POET'S SMILE

He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent
And he tumbled his coal black hair.
